

More Affordable Accommodation Options- XII Decolonizing Conference

University Address: 252 Bloor St W, Toronto

Public Transport to University: <https://www.decolonizingconference.ca/travel>

Notes: The places below can be found on booking.com. I used OISE's address as the location, and set the price filter to get the following results. All prices are cost for 4 nights, from Nov 8-12. These all seem to be in the general vicinity of the university, but not necessarily walking distance to the university. Some require public transport. Folks should double check transport options and distance to the university. If folks are travelling together, it may be cost-effective to share a room with two beds. Some places do not allow for cancellations.

Please note the University of Toronto is NOT affiliated with any of these accommodations and cannot provide any recommendations, nor is the University responsible for people's experiences at these accommodations.
